PRINTED AND PUBLISHED EVERY PRIDAY. BY MRS. HARRIET N. PREWETT, ON JEFFESON STREET

ot paid within a month. Five Dollars at the end of Appearisant will be inserted at the rate of for square for the first insertion and 30 cens for week thereafter—ten lines or less, constituting as he sumber of insertions required, must be murt he margin of the minuscript, or they if orbid, and charged accordingly.

Yearly Advertising. For forty lines or less, renewable at plot

Professional Advertisements. For Inlines or less, not alterable, 3 months, $8 00

FANTON & TURLEY

Successors to T. B. Wheeler & Co.) A LWAYS keep on hand the largest variety of Dry Goods, Boots & Shoes, Hats, Caps, ceiving large additions to his already extensive moose about its miserable neck. Their stock is equal in richness, cheapness and stock, which country merchants would do well extent to any in the southwest-New Orleans to examine before purchasing elsewhere. The [nov 10-tf.]

continue to ship to this House, and will be always ready and willing to make liberal cash advances on consignments to them, and will also furnish plantation supplies, &c.
P. O'DONNELL.

Yazoo city, Oct 8, 185

NEW FIRM.

HIGGINBOTHAM & CO. WE, the undersigned, have formed a partnership for the purpose of transacting a General Produce, Grocery and Liquor

We will keep constantly on hand a general assortment of Family GROCERIES, Wines, Brandies, Hardware, Cutlery, and Queensware, which we will sell very low. T. T. HIGGINBOTHAM, Yazoo city, Dec 24, '52. DISTOLS-Revolving Self-cocking and other superior quality Pistols for sale by Yazoo city, Dec 26, '51. S. H. WILSON. Vicksburg Camphene Manufactory.

sale, wholesale and retail at 75 cents per complete sets of Philosophical Apparatus for Always on hand, Camphene Lamps, Chim Particular Notice. THE Ludies will please call and examine my Stock of Dress Goods, consisting in Silks, d'Laines, Berages, Persian Cloths, Merinos, Alpacas, Ginghame, Swiss, Jackonet, Bared Muslins, de., de., all of which I selected with great care and am determined to sell at very reduced prices on a which I can sell at as low prices as can be purcredit, and for cash, as cheap as any house in chased in New Orleans. Give me a call.

Whether you intend to purchase or not, I extend to you a most cordial invitation to call and look at my stock. Don't delay. N. W. HOBSON, sign of the Eagle. CLOTHING! CLOTHING!! I HAVE just received and opened my splen-did stock of Gentlamen's Fail and Winter CLOTHING, comprising every variety of style and quality. Gentlemen wishing anything in the shape of Coat, Pants, Vest or Shirt, will do well to call and examine for themselves prices to suit the purchaser. N W HOBSON.

sign of the Eagle. handsomest assortment of Boys and Childrens Office. Clothing ever opened in this city, and unsurpassed for cheapness. Send the Juveniles to N HOBSON.

T, MANN from the northern press.

Tax Sale ON Saturday, the 14th day of May next, as upon eaid Lots for the paving in front of the same, to-wil: Lots 155 and 156, 114 front feet at 75c, $85 50; Lot 231, 157 front feet at 75c, 117 75; Lot 242, 764 front feet at 75c, 257 30. Said Lots will be sold to the bident, Said Lois

452 FRE 636 172 13 WAYOO CITY HISS AVING purchased the property rece occupied by the Commercial Bank of 2 chester, I am again prepared to accommo age, and also for their kind forbearance since the fire. No effort or expense shall be want-

HE St Charles is now thoroughly ed and reopened in a style far superior in every respect to any other establishment in Misissippi, or probably in the whole Southern country.

It comprises an area of fifty by one hunt, and contains a Billiard Saloon, two bowling Alleys, Restaurat and other convenient and necessary fixtures. Especial care will be observed in furnishing the bar invaribly with the choicest wines, liquors, &c., and the restaurat with all the luxuries the market affords.

The secluded location, capacious arrangement, and combined advantages of this estabhment, render it emir most competent and gentlemanly men, and no exertion will be omitted calculated to merit a general patronage.

Yazoo city, February 4, 1853. 30-tf.

HARDWARE. NAILS, CASTINGS, IRON, ETC.

RICHARDS, No. 11, Chartres street, following comprises a part of his stock: 700 tons Swedish bar Iron;

do hoop, band and sheet Iron: do Savory & co's castings; 250 casks Ox, Log and Trace chains; do Hoes, assorted; 3000 kegs Nails, assorted, best brands;

200 dozen Shovels and Spades, assorted, Ame Rowland's, etc! Mill Stones, all sizes; Mill Irons; Bolting Cloths; utty. Paints, etc.; with an extensive as-

1000 dozen Axes, Collins & co's, Hunts ar

others' make;

sortment of Shelf Hardware.

New Orleans, nov. 26, 1852.

For Sale

-a small House and Lot on Jefferson treet—several building sites—80 acres of land sear town, heavily timbered—a tract of about The Whigs are unsubdued though inactive.

80 acres on the Yallabusha, 8 miles above Le- They are reposing in inglorious ease, to give Ore, Terms easy-apply to Q. D. GIBBS.

JOHN ROACH,

Maker and Importer, NGINEER'S and Surveyor's Instruments,

N. B .- Mr. James Roads, Cashier of Rail neys and Wicks. [nov 19] A. GENELLA Road, Vicksburg, will receive and forward or- occasion. They know that the Government ness of your brows by knitting them too has Nov 5, '52 17-tf

JUST received per steamer Afton, from New Orleans, (selected by myself) a full supply of the cheapest Family Groceries. Also, Brandies which enables me by order, to be always pre pared for both wholesale and retail customers. D. TAMBORINE

Yazoo city, may 21, 1852.

M. S. 3 S. E. MYS. Attorneys at Law, YAZOO CITY January 7, 1853.

46-tf

OFFICE on Main street, next door to R. M. Motel. A list of prices for any In addition to the above, I have received the operation on the teeth can be consulted at the Yazoo city, Feb 11, '53. 31-tf.

NOTICE! NOTICE! LL persons indebted to the subscribe

Yazoo city, February 11, 1853.

ORDIAL. LUCINA Marshal and Tax ollector of Yazoo city, 6 do bottles Le Cordial de Lucina or Elixer I will sell at nublic auction, before the Mayor's Office in Yazoo city, the following desort functions and artificial baroribed Lots to pay the special tax assessed renness, just received and for sale by

Yazoo city, January 14, 1853 27-tf

And Importers of Foreign Fruits Nuts, &c.,

No. 37, GRAVIER ST., NEW ORLEANS

WHOLESALE and Retail Drug

FRIDAY, MAY 6,

The Old Whip Spirit! Ever since the Presidential election, the Whigs have very generally seemed disposed to suffer Locofocoism to do whatsoever it The business will be conducted by the may please to do unchecked by any opposition. Many of them believe that the best they prepared for the contest of 1840 and own that his satira is of double value now. halls of Holyrood in the gripe of Chaste cool and quiet and permit the men into banners in the begining they were glorious of its kind. No father of a family, we think, the case, the hands of the grim old barons, passed to have their own way. They con-tend that all that is needed is to let Loco-and its lessons of encouragement, so long by the arm of some deboshed dragoon, we simply contend against its abuse. The focoism have rope enough and it will save the must feel that there is room for hope, whose advances she can hardly refuse with-Jack Ketch the trouble of sdjusting the take than in supposing that, because the Whigs were quiet, they were subdued-because their guns were silent, they were spiked. When the Disunionists were beaten, they very properly "acquiesced" in the de- bosom .- Lou. Journal. cision against them, and crawled and sneaked back into the open bosom of Locofocoism, which is always gaping to receive renegades and factions of all kinds. But the hale. Lard and Linseed Oils; window Whigs, though beaten and discouraged thereby, did not "acquiesce." They have no such miserable word as submission in their political vocabulary. They have for years contended for principles rather than than she ever expended in their education 'WO comfortable residences in Yazoo city for power, while with the Locofocos the great object of struggle has been power, she is following the best method of securing The Whigs are unsubdued though mactive. not the happiness of her children, but their itself to the country. What! the old Whig spirit dead? That Philosophical and Mathematical Instrument patriotic fire gone out which burned through fire before the Moloch of fashion, they take so many years of discouragement and en- it for granted that there is but one custom to No. 79, NASSAU STREET, New York lightened the gloom through which our par-Transits, Levels, Compasses, &c., of the ty was called on to pass? Oh, no! That BEST Camphene manufactured weekly, for most approved construction, made to order: also, spirit and that fire can never cease to animate the hearts and illuminate the paths of their destiny in the like locality. the Whigs. The Whigs want but for an is in all its departments hopelessly surrend- tily and severely before you have heard our ered into the hands of the spoilers, and argument. We do not intend. by any hence it is useless now to rally against the means, to pronounce an eleborate discourse Wines, Fruits, &c. I have made arrangements dominent party. But they wait only for the against the vanities of social society-nei of the Importing House in New Orleans, coming round of the proper occasion, and ther is it our vein that you should attain then the bugles of the party will be sound- that cerulean hue, which as Dickey Milnes, I have on hand choice brands of Claret Wine, ed, and from hill to valley, from city and or some other modern poet, tells us, is gratefrom country, from the lowly and from the ful in the eyes of Minerva. "The purple lofty abodes alike will come thronging thick light of love"-these are not our words, for and fast the legions of the Whig party, the blush-rose is the only fit emblem-on which, if they have known defeat, have also your cheecks, is worth all the indigo in the experienced the enthusiastic delights of tri- world. We do not desire that you should umphant victory. Thick and fast as fall be over-literary; and we consider a total "autumnal leaves in Vallambrosa" they will indifference for science to be an excellent > enemies of their sincerity and of the "Might that slumbers in a freeman's arm." Whigs have not the slightest intention of Pleiad." We saw, as it were, the glitter submitting to the political bondage which of a thousand stars; but all of them to desert their time honored standards .- our consent, shall you be cooped up, or pre-They have, as already stated, contended vented from indulging to the full in the intely. If not closed for principles, principles considered by them nocent gayety of your hearts. But we have of the greatest importance to the well-being a word or two to say to the mammas. of our confederacy, and just as soon as an Madam when you first, came out or made opportunity is afforded for the successful as- your debut-for that was then the term > > fully for the ascendancy. nor desest the standards of their party. If and decorum. Is admitted of a slip parzadais, an new on name and see ving part before the great Whig victory of 1840, form. We may now, our dear madam, resisting supply of fresh Briggs, deskining Chamber and the question was acriously debated in some call, without anything like bitterness of feeling, the days when we indulged together which they offer at annually low prices. Meritimetry, Physicians, Physicians

Who does not remember the de that seized on the hearts of the Whigs aft the defeat of Mr. Clay in the campaign 1844? Ah, then, indeed, discour lay like thick night on the heart of our parthousands thought all further struggle us less, and contended that the country should ed with you, over the floor of the Assembly down as a vinegared old Calvinist, who be given over to the misrale of L How vain was all such reasoning was cle ly shown in the Presidential contest of when the Whigs again routed and over then Byron who certaily was not straight the ungracious task of lecturing the Queen's

The Whigs remember that it was in the and, without subscribing to his vimidst of gloom and discouragement that our peristrephic performaces, we must needs stone, ever rushed frantically through the policy for the Whigs to pursue is to keep 1848, and though darkness was upon their The waltz, as we denced it, was decent lar or of Bothwell-indeed, had such been whose hands the reins of Government have ly bright at the termination of those con- whatever be the practices of fashion, can re- their fathers, would instinctively have graspand while hope smiles all is not lost. The out committing a breach of the idiotical erate devotees of the polka have the least present administration will certainly pile up rules which modern usage inculcates. Sure-The Locofocos never made a greater mis- trouble against the day of reckoning, and ly in a free country, a woman ought to be when that comes the Whigs will be there to free in her choice even of a temporary partconfront them and give them the best of rea- ner; and the base notion which prevails, sons for believing that the Whig fire burns that a lady, by refusing the invitation of one as of old brightly in every true Whig man a dance, is debarred from accepting a Quadrille and Polka. We wonder whether it has never occur ed to some mortified mother, who, for, three or four consecutive seasons, has paraded her, daughters at every hall and fashionable gathering, and undergone more trouble in helping them to dissipate their natural roses to herself the question whether, after all, Locofocoism a fair opportunity of exhibiting question, but we fear that some mothers never take it into consideration. Having in their younger days, passed through the be observed, and one course to be pursued. In the ball room they were wooed and won; er degree of contact than the former Terand why should not their daughters achieve

Do not-young ladies-spoil the pretti come, and with firm hearts and stalwart thing in woman. Never shall we forget arms, soon assure their old and inveterate the area of the female faces that beamed upon us when, at a late meeting of the British Association, we read our cel We can assure the Locofocos that the brated paper on "The History of the L would be imposed on them were they basely their rays through spectacles. Never, with tion of those principles, they will come vogue-do you happen to remember what e Lucina on Flixer forth in all their strength and strive man- were the manners of the ballroom? Let us refresh your memory. The staple dance The difference between the Whigs and was the quadrille, perhaps not a very lively the Locofocos are hot nominal but funda- piece of pantomine, but one which, from its mental. A Whig who is willing to permit nature, afforded ample opportunity for conand onward in the work versation, (you may call it flirtation if you debasing our Government must be a poor like,) and was neither, in its form, too re creature. True Whigs will never surrender served nor too familiar. It was all grace the Government is deemed to destruction tremulous pressure of the hand-nothing ve the consolation of feel- figure, attitude of some blushing beauty, - drawn t HAVE always on hand. Oranges, Lemons, Pibers, Raisens, Almonds, Fraits in Juice and Brandy, and every variety of Foreign and Domestic Fruits.

ALSO,

Also,

Agents for the sails of Carolina Soud Peas.

More always on hand. Oranges, Lemons, Fibers, Raisens, Almonds, Fraits in Juice and Brandy, and every variety of Foreign and Domestic Fruits.

ALSO,

Agents for the sails of Carolina Soud Peas.

More always on hand. Oranges, Lemons, Fibers, Raisens, Almonds, Fraits in Juice and Brandy, and every variety of Foreign and Domestic Fruits.

ALSO,

Agents for the sails of Carolina Soud Peas.

More always on hand. Oranges, Lemons, Fibers, Raisens, Almonds, Fraits in Juice and Brandy, and every variety of Foreign and Domestic Fruits.

ALSO,

Agents for the sails of Carolina Soud Peas.

More always on hand. Oranges, Lemons, Fibers, Raisens, Almonds, Fraits in Juice and Brandy, and the particular of the most angraceful of all possible country. The truth in the present—days on which the sun model of the nature of those whispers which her partner had been modely? No doubt everything is innocent, and the whole dance is conducted—on one side at least—with perfect purity of idea by the most approximations, look rain-and yan Buren were Presidents, there seems and Approximations, look rain-and yan Buren were Presidents, there seems and the whole dance is conducted—on one side at least—with perfect purity of idea. But, somehow or other, these grapplings, squeezings and approximations, look rain-and yan understood and more vilined at the North movements, at the will of a notarious Tom model? No doubt everything is innocent, and the whole dance is conducted—on one side at least—with perfect purity of idea. But, somehow or other, these grapplings, squeezings and approximations, lo ts have ever be able to establish themselves in pow- nastics, all of a harmless nature. But Satlding on er than there is at present. But one short on had entered paradise, though in a mild ball-rooms, may be pardoned for expression of 1840, form. We may now, our dear madam, recoloring year before the gront Whig violery of 1840, form. We may now, our dear madam, reline on the first of th and accord, that red-hair monster McTavish, chance tired and languid as she is from in virtue of his imaginary rent-roll, and the effect of has hight's polka; through ted. But it was pleasant to revolve, link- goons-to peruse these pages, she will set-Rooms when Spindler was in his glory, and knows nothing whatever of the ways of when the waltz was kept, at least, within something like decent limits. Long before John Knox, who once took upon himself laced had published his poem of the "Waltz;" Maries. But neither Mary Seaton, Mary more coegeuial offer, is utterly foreign and repugnant to the rules of chivilry. In the hall, or bower, the ladies are paramount to adjudicate upon such matters.

But, not to perpetrate a digression in fav of Provencal usages, let us return to the Lord Byron, writing Horace Hornem, was fully justified in utterance of every couplet. The poet seer; and though we, perhaps, in our you er days, could descry no impropriety in the waltz, which merely admitted us to a nearchorean evolutions, the prophetical ev of the bard foresaw the necessary consequence. The character of the waltz gradually became changed. From a graceful ro- leave to relate for the benefit of Mrs. Stowe tary motion, it degenerated into a Bacchic and her abolition sympathisers. movement, similar, no doubt, to the first ar own free will heed to what we say. If one of them should g ago our agony of mind, like the re- which she has been hurried in the nervous ance of an old toothache, has departembrace of Captain Fitzurse, of the Draws upon Boston, Mary Fleming nor Mary Livingffect of it is just this, that the most invethance of being married. No man of reanement likes to see the object of his affections prancing wildly in the arms of another. Cupid, as the Americans say, is " skeary critter;" and a verry little matter in deed is sufficient to make him take wing. Let the ladies take our word for it, that retinence is a virtue greatly appreciated by monkind. Many a young man has entered and they ought to exert their authority a ballroom with a mind thoroughly made remembring this, the slightest murmur a. up for an avowal, and left it with the detergainst their decision ought to be considered mination to have nothing more to say to the an offence against knightly courtesy. It lady whose breath has fanned the whiskers would be well if we had a female tribunal, of o whole regimental mess. Among the with full powers of expulsion from society, accomplishments which enter into the manial calculation, deftness in the polka has but a very subordinate share. Were it otherwise, the simplest method would be to select a pariner for life from the ranks of ie corps-de-ballet. It is the domestic gra-

> A Case for Mrs. Stowe. We were informed a few days ago of ransaction which reflects much honor up te parties concerned, and which we beg

The reader will remember that the bark Thespian performances, which were intend- Zebra, bound from New Orleans to Liberia ed, as scholars tell us, to be in honor of the with emigrants, put into this port some young Lyaus. Then came the galoppe, weeks ago with cholera on board. Several which was a still further manifestation of emigrants had died of the disease on the the triumphal procession of Ariadne. Danc- passage from New Orleans to this place, ing, as one of the fine arts, now received and great consternation and alarm prevail its virtual death-blow. You saw an infuri- ed among the passengers. As toon as their ated looking fellow throw his arm round a case was made known, our city authorities girl's waist and rush off with her as if he took immediate steps to supply the emihad been one of the troop of Romulus ab- grants with fresh provisions and medical ducting a reluctant Sabine, Sabina, how- assistance, and otherwise to contribute to ever, made na remonstrance, but went along their comfort and safety. A gentleman rewith him quite cordially. They pursued a siding in Florida-a philanthropist in deed pecies of bat-like race around the room- and not in name—as soon as he heard of jerking, flitting, backing and pirocting, the condition of the vessel, remitted one without rule, and without any vestige of hundred dollars to a friend in this city, with grace, until breath fieled them, and the pant- instructions to apply it to the relief of the ing virgin was pulled up short on the arm emigrants. The friend to whom the money her perspiring partner. Ghost of Count was sent, gave immediate attention to the familton! shade of De Grammont! has it business, but found no use to which he really come to this? You knew, in your could apply it. Persons in Louisiana and day, something about the Castlemaines and New Orleans whence the Zubra sailed, had hers, but never did you witness, in public already given orders by telegraph to have at least, such orgies as British matrons and excepthing done which could conduce to mothers now placidly contemplate and ap- the health and comfort of the emigrants both while here and on their passage to Li-This, however, called for a reform; and beria. The gentleman in Florida was inwas reformed. By what? By the intro- formed of this, and he wrote back to his duction of the polka the favorite dance, friend here to keep the money and apply it and no wonder, of the Casinos. View it to the first case of suffering which might al dence of Bacchus | All this was done quietly and without the and Ariadne. Our mothers or grandmoth- least parade. It was not found necessary, ered, and some of them either here or in New Orleans, to take round now, could they see one of their female de- through the press. The simple fact of the endants absolutely in the embrace of some condition of the emigrants was known, and